Place: Supreme Court of South Australia
The Mary Kitson Conference Room
In person and Online – a link will be provided prior

This free public event will consider the extent to which the exercise of non-statutory government powers are reviewable, and on what basis. The speakers will trace the changes in approach over recent times in Australia and with reference to the position in some overseas jurisdictions.

Registration is essential and the in-person audience is limited to 50. This event will also be streamed. A link will be sent to all registrants.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the discussion.

The Australian Academy of Law is very pleased to hold this event, chaired by the Hon Justice Chris Bleby, Court of Appeal, Supreme Court of South Australia.

The speakers will be:

The Hon Alan Robertson SC

formerly a judge of the Federal Court of Australia, President of the Australian Academy of Law

Mike Wait SC

Solicitor-General for South Australia
