This collection of papers and speeches draws on the papers and speeches of one of Australia's leading jurists, the Hon Robert French AC. The book is divided into ten parts, each reflecting an aspect of Robert French's career, including indigenous issues, human rights, public law, commercial dispute resolution and the judicial system. Robert French's contributions are given context through commentaries by judges, legal academics and practitioners.

The speakers at the online launch will be:

Justice Virginia Bell AC of the High Court of Australia.

Professor Adrienne Stone, who holds a Chair at Melbourne Law School where she is also a Kathleen Fitzpatrick Australian Laureate Fellow, a Redmond Barry Distinguished Professor and Director of the Centre for Comparative Constitutional Studies.

Professor Gino Dal Pont, who holds the position of Professor, School of Law, University of Tasmania, where he teaches in equity & trusts, legal ethics and tax.

The Hon Robert French AC,
Chancellor of the University of Western Australia, formerly
Chief Justice of Australia

Professor Robert Pascoe,
Dean Laureate and Professor of History at Victoria University, Melbourne, a long-time friend of Mr French.

The Federation Press is pleased to offer those attending the online launch the opportunity to purchase the book at the special price of $136.00, a 15% saving on the RRP of $160.00.
