

Making Judges in Commonwealth Judiciaries

DATE: 24 June 2020
TIME: 1 pm (WST)
PLACE: Online, see below

A presentation which will discuss the need for a critical re-examination of the practice of finding ready-made judges among legal practitioners.

This presentation will be conducted using the Microsoft Teams platform. That platform will permit you to see and hear the speaker and ask questions through the live text message (“Chat”) facility. You do not need to have a Microsoft Teams account. All you will need is an internet connection and either Microsoft Edge or Google Chrome (as these are the most compatible web browsers with Microsoft Teams). For more information on joining the presentation using Microsoft Teams insert in your search engine (such as Google) the following: Join a meeting in Teams.

If you want to join the presentation, please register online by 19 June and include your email for the relevant link to use to join the presentation and more information about using Microsoft Teams.

Speaker

Ms Jessica Kerr is a PhD candidate and sessional teacher in the School of Law at the University of Western Australia, currently researching judicial legitimacy in New Zealand. Additionally she is a barrister and solicitor, admitted in New Zealand and Western Australia with professional experience in East Africa.

Ms Kerr is a graduate of Victoria University of Wellington (BA, LLB Hons) and Yale Law School (LLM).

To register for this event visit www.academyoflaw.org.au/events
RSVP by 19 June 2020