

SEMINAR

PUBLIC CONFIDENCE, APPREHENDED BIAS, AND THE MODERN FEDERAL JUDICIARY

Tuesday 2 March 2021, 5:30 PM AEST

Proudly hosted by the Australian Academy of Law and the Australian Law Reform Commission.

Chair:

The Hon Justice Sarah Derrington, ALRC President

Panellists:

The Hon Justice Michael Lee, Federal Court of Australia

His Honour Judge Matthew Myers AM, Federal Circuit Court of Australia

Professor Gabrielle Appleby, University of New South Wales

Mr Anthony McAvoy SC, Barrister

Mr Chris Merritt, Journalist and Rule of Law Institute Australia Vice President

Online seminar (Microsoft Teams)

with limited in-person attendance (max 50)

Court 1, Level 21, Joint Courts Building, Queens Square, 184 Phillip Street, Sydney

Please note in-person attendance will be allocated in order of registrations received and will be confirmed via email.

REGISTER NOW: bit.ly/AAL-JudicialSeminar

ALL WELCOME

Find out more about the ALRC Inquiry into Judicial Impartiality: www.alrc.gov.au

For seminar queries, please email: comms@alrc.gov.au

Australian Government

Australian Law Reform Commission

AAL
Australian Academy of Law