

Welcome to the eighth Newsletter for 2025.

Nominating new Fellows by 31 August 2025

I ask that each Fellow consider making a nomination of another distinguished lawyer to be a Fellow.

The eligibility criteria are that the person nominated is of exceptional distinction in the discipline of law and is demonstrably committed to the objects of the Academy.

All Fellows are encouraged to look widely and broadly to nominate candidates.

I ask that you look at candidates beyond your usual professional or personal networks and that in nominating distinguished persons from the legal profession, from legal academia and from the judiciary you consider candidates from diverse backgrounds. I note that practitioners are underrepresented amongst Academy Fellows.

To assist, a new and much more user-friendly nomination form is available here.

Please forward your nominations to the AAL Secretariat aalsecretariat@academyoflaw.org.au by 31 August 2025.

The AAL expects to elect new Fellows by the end of calendar year 2025.

2025 AAL Essay Prize – 31 August deadline

The Australian Academy of Law offers its Annual Essay Prize for 2025.

The amount of the Prize is $10,000. The essay topic for the Prize in 2025 is as follows:

"Where has Bird v DP [2024] HCA 41 left the law of vicarious liability in Australia? How does it differ from the law in other common law jurisdictions? Should there be a legislative response to Bird and, if so, what should be its scope?"

The essay is to be a maximum of 8,000 words (excluding the abstract).

The Prize is open to anyone, wherever resident, who is studying or has studied legal subjects at a tertiary level, or who is working or has worked in a law-based occupation. There is no limit by reference to the age or seniority or experience of, or position held by, a person who may submit an entry.

Accordingly, judicial officers, legal practitioners, legal academics and law students are all eligible to submit an essay.

The deadline for the submission of an essay is 31 August 2025 and this time limit is strictly observed.

AAL's new website

I am pleased to advise Fellows that you should expect a 'Welcome to the new website' email from me in early September, with an invitation to log in and set up your new password, check your details and view the new site.

Assistance will be available via the Secretariat: aalsecretariat@academyoflaw.org.au

For those few Fellows yet to pay their annual subscription, you may still make payment via EFT or contact the Secretariat to make payment via credit card. Your prompt payment would be greatly appreciated.

Forthcoming AAL events

Tuesday, 23 September 2025 - The Fourteenth Austin Asche Oration in Law and Governance

The venue is the large lecture theatre at Charles Darwin University's new Danala Education Precinct in the city of Darwin

The Austin Asche Oration honours the service of the late Hon Austin Asche AC KC to the people of the Northern Territory and his contribution to the law, tertiary education and the community.

This year the speaker will be Lydia Khalil and her topic is Democracy and Its Discontents. A taste of the topic is as follows:

Extremism is antithetical to democracy, so what does the growth in the breadth and complexity of extremism tell us about the state of our democracy and democracy globally? What implications are there for the law? And how can we better work to repair and safeguard our democracy into the future amid rising global threats?

Lydia Khalil is a Senior Research Fellow at the Alfred Deakin Institute at Deakin University. She is a Research Fellow at the Lowy Institute and Convenor of the AVERT (Addressing Violent Extremism and Radicalisation to Terrorism) Research Network and Project Director of the Transnational Challenges Program, Lowy Institute. She manages the Digital Threats to Democracy Project.

She is a recognised expert on terrorism and extremism.

I thank Professor Alan Berman, Professor and Dean of Law, Charles Darwin University School of Law for his work on this.

A flyer will be distributed soon.

The Chief Justice of Victoria, the Hon Richard Niall, has agreed to give the 2025 AAL's Patron's Address. The date is 30 October 2025 in the Banco Court, Supreme Court of Victoria. The working title of Chief Justice Niall's address is Lessons in mathematics.

Further details will be available soon.

Thursday, 6 November 2025 – Sydney

Royal Society of NSW - Learned Academies Forum

This event will be hosted at Government House, Sydney. It runs for the whole day. Emeritus Professor Ros Croucher AM tells me the AAL will be included.

The focus of the 2025 Forum will be on AI: 'the good, the bad and the optimal'. Ros Croucher is to chair a panel, representing the AAL aspect of the day.

Recent events

Saturday 2 August 2025 – Canberra Venue - Australian National University Michael Coper Memorial Prize

This AAL-sponsored prize, newly increased to $2,000, is awarded to the overall winner of the Australian Law Students' Association (ALSA) Paper Presentation Competition, which involves researching and writing a legal essay and then presenting it to a panel of judges.

The AAL provided three judges for the grand final of the ALSA Paper Presentation competition and awarded the Michael Coper Memorial Prize ($2,000) at the Closing Gala and Awards Ceremony. The AAL also provides $500 to ALSA towards administration expenses for this major event.

The winner of the Michael Coper paper presentation prize was Samantha Romijn from Victoria University Wellington. The title of her paper was: "Addressing the Doctrinal Quagmire of Non-Contractual Quantum Meruit in New Zealand".

The Australian Champion, the other finalist, was Archie Horneman-Wren from the ANU. His paper was titled: "Love, Law and History: Justice Edelman's Activist Originalism in Love v Commonwealth".

The Hon Mary Finn awarded the prizes at the Conference dinner on behalf of the judging panel that she chaired. The other members of the panel were The Hon Justice David Mossop (ACT Supreme Court) and Ms Kathy Leigh (Head of the ACT Public Service and Director-General ACT Chief Minister, Treasury and Economic Development Directorate).

I am very grateful to the three AAL Fellows for their time and effort in judging the paper presentation.
